Handsome traditional 3-bedroom detached chalet villa built in the 1930's situated conveniently to Hermitage academy with bus and rail links close by. Set amidst beautiful gardens on all sides with patio, greenhouse and detached Garage with power and lighting, this attractive traditional home offers fantastic family accommodation over two levels with a flexible layout offering additional bedroom or public room which every was required. The house has been well looked after and although internally some cosmetic work could be carried out the house itself is in good order. Painted dry dash render with double glazed windows and a tiled roof, gas heating.

The gardens are completely level with lawned sections and mature planting and shrubbery, gravelled and slabbed driveway at the rear of the house leading to a garage. The interior of the property combines period features (original fireplaces) with more modern touches. The accommodation consists Entrance vestibule, reception hall /WC cloaks, Lounge, Sitting room, Kitchen, downstairs bedroom, upstairs to family bathroom and 2 large double bedrooms.

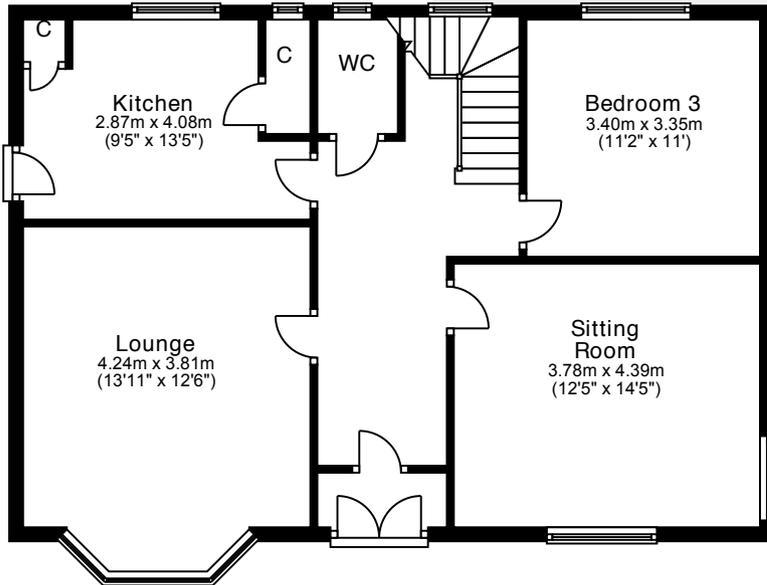

The centre of Helensburgh is only a short distance away and Hermitage Academy, the new Morrisons store and Craigendoran railway station are all within walking distance.
